| 1 | Cut the coconut cream into large chunks and place in a bowl. Pour the hot water over the coconut and stir to dissolve. Place in a blender with all the other ingredients except the chicken reserving a little coriander for garnish. |
| 2 | Blend the mixture for a few seconds until well mixed and allow to cool slightly. |
| 3 | Make 3 diagonal cuts across the chicken breasts, arrange in a dish and pour over half the coconut mixture. Cover and marinate in the fridge for at least 30 mins. |
| 4 | Pre-heat the grill to a medium setting, arrange the chicken skin side down in a grill pan and spread over the marinade. |
| 5 | Grill for 10 - 15 mins, turning and basting occasionally. Allow slightly longer to cook the skin side of the chicken |

6 While the chicken is cooking, heat the remaining coconut mixture in a saucepan stirring occasionally and simmer gently for 2 mins. Do not allow to boil as it may start to separate.

7 Serve the chicken with the sauce and Thai fragrant rice, garnished with the reserved coriander.
